Trump's Inauguration: Could Its Symbolism Signal the Start of a "Golden Age"—A Deceptive Prelude to a Luciferian New World Order?

Sixbert SANGWA • January 24, 2025

As we examine the unfolding events of our time, particularly Donald Trump's inauguration and its rich symbolism, we see intriguing parallels between secret societies, globalist agendas, and biblical prophecies. With 2025 purportedly marking the advent of a post-constitutional era and what many occultists term as "great awakening," various high-profile events have captured attention through their use of esoteric symbolism. From the cover of the Economic Group's "World Ahead 2025 Report" to the Notre Dame Cathedral reopening, Pope Francis's opening of five holy doors, UN's decollation of its security boardroom, the Royal Mint's controversial Year of the Snake coin featuring King Charles III alongside serpent effigies—these events, along with Trump's presidential inaugurations, appear laden with symbolic meaning. The symbolism employed during these developments raises questions about their deeper significance. While such events may appear ordinary on the surface, their symbolic elements and timing warrant careful examination through both prophetic and discernment lenses, particularly as occult practitioners worldwide celebrate what they believe to be their own spiritual awakening.

Symbolism at the Core of Globalist Ceremonies

Donald Trump's inauguration ceremony on January 20, 2025, where he was sworn in as the 47th president of the United States after a four-year hiatus, was rich with symbolic elements that many viewed as significant. The ceremony featured apparent occult symbolism, though some might view it as merely a routine ceremony. Consider the presidential limousine, historically known as "The Beast," which carried Donald Trump and Joe Biden to the inauguration ceremony. This vehicle's designation takes on deeper meaning when viewed through the lens of biblical prophecy, as it mirrors the imagery of the beast described in Revelation 13:1-18. Could this parallel be mere coincidence, or is it a deliberate reference to apocalyptic scripture?

A particularly striking moment during the inauguration ceremony came when Trump, breaking with longstanding presidential tradition, declined to take his oath of office on a Bible (Reuters, 2025). This was especially notable as Melania Trump had brought two Bibles to the ceremony, making it clear this wasn't a case of forgetfulness (TIME, 2025). While Trump concluded with the traditional "so help me God," the decision to avoid the Bible seemed particularly significant given his frequent claims of being "chosen by God" and his strong support from evangelical Christians. Some interpreted this break from tradition, dating back to George Washington's first inauguration in 1789, as potentially revealing about which 'god' Trump actually refers to in his public statements. This departure from Christian tradition takes on deeper meaning in light of biblical warnings about deception in the last days, where even those claiming divine authority may not align with traditional Christian values (2 Thessalonians 2:9-10).

Moreover, the attire and gestures of the participants further reinforce this narrative. Melania Trump's appearance in a striking black and white outfit with apparent Masonic design elements appeared to be an intentional choice. Observers have argued that Melania Trump's attire always carries a message (SeeingThruBS, 2025). Discerning eyes have tried decoding the meaning behind these symbols, but interpretations present dystopian ambitions (Truthzone, 2025). Her attire also featured snake-adorned designs, which generated numerous interpretations and speculations (Mambo, 2025).

Furthermore, Eric Trump openly and deliberately displayed the triangle hand symbol that Donald Trump frequently uses (McGregor, 2025; Silk, 2025; Travis, 2025). His wife had to tap him on the shoulder to make him stop, likely because too many people have begun recognizing these symbolic gestures. These public displays demand scrutiny, particularly when aligned with Trump's rhetoric about a divine mission to "save America" and even the world.

In a striking moment during Trump's inauguration ceremony, Elon Musk took the stage and made a gesture that sparked widespread controversy (Ninety, 2025). The gesture, reminiscent of the nazi salute (Aljazeera, 2025; The New Arab, 2025), originated in the Roman Empire (Young, 2025). While some might interpret this as mere exuberance, the gesture's deep historical ties to imperial power and authoritarian regimes raise serious concerns. This apparently calculated use of symbolism becomes especially significant when considered alongside Musk's own declaration, after the recent US elections, that "America is New Rome" (Musk, 2024). Such statements, when viewed through the lens of biblical prophecy, particularly Daniel's vision of the fourth beast (Daniel 7:7), take on ominous significance. The Roman Empire, represented by this fourth beast, has historical and prophetic significance as the final earthly empire before the emergence of the Antichrist's global system. By openly identifying with and incorporating Roman symbolism, these influential figures are not merely drawing historical parallels - they appear to be consciously positioning themselves as the prophesied successors to this imperial legacy, potentially laying groundwork for what Scripture warns will be the final beastly system of global governance. The timing and nature of such displays and declarations suggest not coincidence, but calculated messaging to those aware of its esoteric and prophetic significance.

The "Golden Age" and Occult Connections

Looking at the presidential inauguration ceremony in its entirety, the concept of the upcoming golden age marked the entire event. The concept of a "Golden Age", "Golden Dawn" or "the dawn of a new golden age" is deeply rooted in the teachings of occult figures such as Aleister Crowley, Alice Bailey, and Madame Blavatsky. In Alice Bailey's seminal work, The Externalization of the Hierarchy, she outlines a plan for humanity in this age, culminating in 2025. Bailey describes the period before the year 2025 as a time of preparation for the "externalization" of the spiritual hierarchy—a hierarchy that, by her admission, operates under Luciferian principles (Bailey, 1957).

During his inauguration speech, Trump referenced the dawn of a new era, a "golden age" (CNN,2025;CBSNews, 2025). This theme was previously echoed by Vivek Ramaswamy, who boldly declared ahead of Trump's inauguration that "the dawn of a new Golden Age starts on Monday"(Ramaswamy, 2025). On inauguration day itself, Ramaswamy further emphasized this theme by posing with his hand raising hands with Elon Musk with the caption "a new dawn"(Ramaswamy, 2025). Was this merely coincidental wordplay? Such rhetoric appears to be a direct reference to the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn—an occult society known for its magical practices and rituals (Regardie et. al., 2003- see free version). This connection becomes even more apparent considering Marina Abramović, a controversial figure in the art world with known occult ties (Newyorker, 2015; The Guardian, 2025), made striking claims in a 2021 interview. She not only lauded Trump as "the magician of the highest order" but also claimed that her spiritual guide, the Shaman, had revealed to her that Trump would return to office and facilitate their final "awakening"(Abramović Interview, 2021). This "awakening" eerily aligns with Alice Bailey's prophecies in The Externalization of the Hierarchy, where she explicitly states that by 2025, the "spiritual hierarchy" would manifest their presence and usher in a great awakening (Bailey, 1957,p. 539). These apparent connections to the Golden Dawn secret society, coupled with prophecies made years prior to Trump's return, are difficult to dismiss as mere coincidence.

Mars and the Technocratic Agenda

Trump's renewed focus on Mars during his inauguration speech also merits examination. His rhetoric about "manifesting" a mission to Mars and planting the American flag there uses terminology with occult undertones. In his speech, he declared: "is our territory, builds our cities, raises our expectations and carries our flag into new and beautiful horizons, and we will pursue our manifest destiny into the stars, launching American astronauts to plant the stars and stripes on the planet Mars."(VICNC,2025). This aligns with Elon Musk's vision of Mars as a "New World" (Musk, 2024; Times of India, 2024) - language historically associated with colonization and conquest.

This Mars focus appears to be part of a broader technocratic agenda. Evidence suggests NASA has deliberately staged Mars imagery using Devon Island in Canada's Arctic as a filming location. This remote area's Mars-like terrain provides an ideal setting for fabricating footage that NASA claims come from Mars rovers (Ksara.com, 2023). While NASA acknowledges using Devon Island for "simulation" purposes, whistleblowers have exposed how the agency actually uses this location to produce deceptive Mars mission content (Smithsonian, 2017; Yahoo News UK, 2024; NASA Watch, 2024). Recently declassified CIA documents even made the extraordinary claim that Mars was once inhabited by ancient civilizations of "very tall people" who built pyramids (Daily Mail, 2023). This deception extends to historical space missions, with skeptics noting inconsistencies and conveniently lost blueprints from past missions including the moon landings (Royal Museums Greenwich, 2024).

In a remarkable coincidence, Wernher von Braun, NASA's founder and first director, wrote a 1953 science fiction book "Project Mars: A technical Tale" which describes a global united earth government that launches a major mission to Mars based on the discovery of Martian canals by a powerful space telescope, believing evidence of intelligent life exists on the planet. In the same work, he described these futuristic people who would colonize Mars and would be led by a figure called "the Elon." You see that "Von's description of this unified Earth government's Mars mission echo in Elon Musk's current Mars colonization plans. Is this esoteric wisdom, or is it clear that Elon was deliberately chosen for such deceptions? Could it be a joke that Elon recently tweeted this "Accelerating Starship development to build the Martian Technocracy" (Musk,2019)? The dawn age? Could this be part of the broader end-time deception to distract us? Regardless of how events unfold, at God's appointed time, this judgment will befall the father of lies "Though you seem to soar like an eagle and make your nest among the stars, even from there I will bring you down"(Obadiah 1:4).

When considered alongside Musk's Neuralink brain-computer interface project, these developments align with biblical prophecies about end-time global control. Daniel's vision of "Iron mixed with clay"(Daniel 2:43) suggests a mixing of human and non-human elements. This parallels other prophecies about a final world empire that would use advanced technology to establish unprecedented control (Revelation 13:16-17). Creating a system where "no one can buy or sell" without participating. The integration of human consciousness with artificial intelligence through brain-computer interfaces could represent a step toward this prophesied system of total control.

The Role of Media and The Luciferian Awakening

The media's role in perpetuating these narratives cannot be overstated. From Trump's golden appearance to his references to Apollo, the imagery is calculated to evoke a sense of grandeur and divine purpose. Yet, as Christians, we must discern whether this "golden age" aligns with the teachings of Christ or serves as a prelude to the reign of the Antichrist. The Bible warns of a time when even the elect may be deceived (Matthew 24:24). At the heart of this movement lies the concept of a Luciferian awakening. Those who openly embrace Luciferian principles, while Trump's speeches subtly invoke a deity that may assume to be the God of the Bible. However, the consistent references to light and enlightenment align more closely with Lucifer, whose name means "light-bearer" (Isaiah 14:12).

Reflection

As we reflect on these developments, several critical questions emerge: We must ask why global leaders and influential figures are so openly embracing occult symbolism and language in their public appearances and communications. The frequent references to a "Golden Age" and promises of peace are particularly concerning, especially given their parallels to the Pax Romana - marked by relative peace and prosperity that marked the height of Roman imperial authority and prosperity (Roman Empire History, 2023; Wikipedia). This historical parallel is troubling, as the Roman Empire's "Golden Age" was built on authoritarian control and the suppression of religious freedom. The Bible warns us specifically about this pattern - when they say "peace and security," sudden destruction will come (1 Thessalonians 5:3). This aligns with prophecies about the Antichrist, who will initially appear as a bringer of peace before revealing his true nature. We should carefully consider how this concept aligns with biblical prophecy, and whether Christians should be wary of its implications. Furthermore, we need to examine whether the technological advancements being touted as humanity's salvation are genuinely beneficial, or if they serve a darker agenda. Finally, in this era of widespread deception and manipulation, we must grapple with how to effectively discern truth from falsehood.

Conclusion: A Call for Vigilance

As we navigate these turbulent times, it is crucial for Christians to remain grounded in Scripture and vigilant against deception. The allure of a "Golden Age" may captivate many, but its underpinnings reveal a stark departure from biblical truth. We must ask ourselves: Are we witnessing the fulfillment of prophecy, or are we being led astray by a carefully orchestrated plan to undermine God's kingdom?

Let us turn to the Word of God for guidance and clarity, for it is the ultimate source of truth in an age of confusion. As Paul admonishes in Ephesians 6:12, "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this darkness, against evil, spiritual forces in the heavens". May we equip ourselves with the full armor of God and stand firm in the face of these challenges, ever mindful of Christ's promise to be with us "to the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20).
